Styling and Social Media | Hands-on

Doing It for the Gram

How we capture our work behind the chair is just as important as the services we are providing to our guests. Think of everyone who sees our clients when leaving our salons vs. how many people we reach through a single social media post. In this class you will learn tips and tricks on how to give your client "Picture Perfect" hair. We will go over styling techniques, different finishes, products to use, and how to pose your client to make them feel the most comfortable behind a camera in order for us to capture that Instagram worthy picture/video.
